EVERY FALL

#204 — SURVEY OF THE OLD TESTAMENT (prerequisite for #205)

Participants will gain a deeper understanding of the Old Testament, its major divisions, key persons, places and events and will recognize the interconnection between our life story and the Old Testament story. They will become more skilled in presenting this message with the students they teach.

#205 — SURVEY OF THE NEW TESTAMENT

Participants will become familiar with the New Testament, its major divisions, key persons, places, events and themes and will recognize the interconnection between our life story and the Jesus story. They will become more skilled in presenting this message with the students they teach.

#217 — LITURGY (prerequisite for #218)

Participants will gain a deeper understanding and appreciation of liturgical prayer and worship in the Catholic tradition. They will experience theological reflection through the form of “breaking open the Word”.

#218 — SACRAMENTS

Participants will gain an appreciation of the Sacraments as unfolding throughout the history of the Church and as signs, symbols and celebrations of human life in all its stages. They will be guided in reflecting on their own experiences of these sacraments and in methods of presenting them at various age levels.

EVERY SPRING

#211 — THE CHURCH AND ITS HISTORY

Participants will come to learn persons and events that have shaped the major stages of the Church’s history as the pilgrim people of God and appreciate our place in this history. They will gain knowledge of the models of our faith of these eras and integrate the example of the saints into their teaching in ways appropriate for the developmental stages of their audiences.

#216 — CHRISTIAN LIVING: DISCIPLESHIP and MORALITY

Participants will grow in their understanding of Christian Morality as a way of life that flows from Christian discipleship; reflect on their own growth in the moral life; and, will explore principles of social justice and their impact on moral decision making. They will demonstrate age-appropriate ways of presenting this message.

#221 — THE MINISTRY OF CATECHESIS: THEORY AND PRACTICE

Participants will gain an appreciation of the ministry of catechesis and its role in the process of evangelization. They will grow in their awareness and understanding of the development of the learner and learn the mastery skills for all Level 2 courses.

#231 — MATURING IN FAITH

Participants will integrate and articulate their experience of maturing in faith as a living and fruitful disciple and reflect on their own identity as believers. They will become more skilled in locating resources and integrating them in their own reflections and in their teaching faith and doctrine in ways appropriate for the developmental stages of their audiences.
